PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Full-stack web developer (React, Next.js, Laravel, Spring Boot) and digital content creator from Rabat, Morocco. I built and run Estore.ma, a digital products and subscription platform with 6,000+ customers and $10,000+ in revenue, and grew the ElMdPlay channel to 25,000+ YouTube subscribers and 50M+ views across platforms. I take products from code to customers: development, deployment, content, ads and community. Experienced in intercultural exchange as a volunteer translator for visiting American students, and motivated by projects that combine digital communication with work for young people.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Founder — Estore.ma
Nov 2024 – Present

Digital products & subscription platform · Rabat, Morocco (Remote) · Self-employed

- Built and run a digital products and subscription business from scratch: streaming subscriptions, digital services and advertising solutions.
